

The White Paper Consultation: Liberating the NHS

The Health White Paper, 'Equity and Excellence: Liberating the NHS' was published on 12th July and sets out the Government's vision for the NHS. The proposals represent some of the biggest changes to the NHS in the last 60 years and provide both opportunities and challenges for the voluntary and community sector.

There are 3 consultation papers stemming from the White Paper that you have the opportunity to respond to;

Transparency in outcomes: a framework for the NHS

Seeks views on the creation of national outcomes which will provide an indication of the overall performance of the NHS. This is relevant to patients and communities as it will be against this framework that the government will hold the NHS to account.

Key themes;

- Preventing people from dying prematurely
- Enhancing quality of life for people with long term conditions
- Ensuring people have a positive experience of care

Liberating the NHS: Commissioning for patients

Primary Care Trusts are being abolished. Commissioning of health will be co-ordinated and conducted locally by consortia of GP and Local Authorities.

Key Themes;

- GP consortia will have freedom over budgets in order to buy services on behalf of patients
- GPs will have a duty to involve patients and public
- Every GP practice will be a member of a consortium

Liberating the NHS: local democratic legitimacy in health

It is the government's view that patients should have a voice which is heard and listened to by the new consumer champion HealthWatch

Key themes;

- Your LINK will become HealthWatch which will promote patients and public involvement and seek views on health and social care
- NHS complaints advocacy service
- Supporting individuals to exercise choice
- Promote joint working

The LINK are happy to collate your views and opinions and respond on your behalf. Let us know what you think about the proposals to reform the NHS by;
